

Kathryn Rose Kueppers, Miss Minnesota 2019

BIO Information

Kathryn represented the community of Coon Rapids at the 2019 Miss Minnesota Competition, held in Eden Prairie on June 22, 2019. She is a student at Minnesota State University–Mankato working to obtain a degree in Family and Consumer Science (FACS) Education, to one day teach valuable life skills to students. Kathryn is a jazz vocalist and was awarded both the talent and the evening wear/social impact statement awards at the state competition. She will compete for Miss America to be aired LIVE on NBC.

Creator of The Invisible Crown comprehensive online resource, Kathryn is a strong advocate for the Miss America Organization. She works to spread awareness of the scholarships and opportunities available to women who become candidates in the Miss America program.

Why should you become a Candidate?

- Earn scholarships awards for college
- Perform a talent of your choice
- Take advantage of community service opportunities
- Grow in self confidence, grace, style, social skills, and much more!

Why should you become involved?

Because your involvement with a local or state program can change lives. Miss America is not just about the one woman who is crowned every year. It is about all the women who participate, improve themselves through education and community service, and continue to make a difference in their communities long after they have passed on their crowns. The Miss America organization can only thrive by the generous time given by thousands of men and women who volunteer, sponsor, and support these women and local and state competitions. Become involved today!
